United States Department of Justice

Missing and Murdered Indigenous Persons Initiative

Brian L. Speelman

Missing and Murdered Indigenous Persons Coordinator
United States Attorney's Office, District of Utah

U.S. Attorney General
William P. Barr

U.S. Attorney John W. Huber

Missing and Murdered Indigenous Person Initiatives

2020

Presidential Task Force on Missing and Murdered American Indians and Alaska Natives

Executive order 13898, November 26, 2019

Operation Lady Justice

United States Department of Justice

Missing and Murdered Indigenous Persons (MMIP) Initiative

United States Attorney's Offices

Utah Murdered and Missing Indigenous Woman and Girls Task Force

Utah H.B. 116

Savana's Act

To direct the Attorney General to review, revise, and develop law enforcement and justice protocols appropriate to address missing and murdered Indians.

Not Invisible Act

To increase inter-governmental coordination to identify and combat violent crime within Indian lands and of Indians.

United States Department of Justice

Missing and Murdered Indigenous Persons Initiative

United States Attorney's Offices

National Strategy to Address Missing and Murdered Indigenous Persons

To enhance investigations into missing persons, and develop protocols for law-enforcement, improvements to data collection and analysis, training and technical assistance.

United States Attorney's Offices

MMIP Coordinator

- Develop national "model" protocols for a more coordinated law-enforcement response to Missing Person cases.
- Support the development and implementation of MMIP Tribal Community Response Plans.
- Improve data collection and analysis.
- Provide training to support local response efforts.

Federal Bureau Of Investigation

Deployment of FBI's most advanced response capabilities

5

Comprehensive Data Analysis

Collaboration

- Tribal Government Consultations, “Scope & Nature”
- Model Protocols & Procedures
- Cold Case Teams
- Outreach & Training
- Data Collection & Analysis