8:05 2. Economic Development of Manufacturing -- a Utah Perspective

Manufacturing is the process of building, assembling, or fabricating a product from raw materials through labor, machinery, and other means to make a product that can be used by a consumer. By adding value from start to finish, manufacturing fuels economic growth in other sectors in the economy from mining, to transportation, to warehousing, to retail. Is there anything the state can do to remove barriers and encourage the success and growth of the manufacturing industry in Utah? What else would assist the manufacturing industry? What more can the state and other partners do to promote economic success and to assist in maintaining and creating jobs in manufacturing? The committee will hear from representatives of the manufacturing industry and discuss the issues involved.
