

VICTIM SELECTION PENALTY ENHANCEMENTS

2017 GENERAL SESSION

STATE OF UTAH

LONG TITLEGeneral Description:

This bill modifies the Utah Criminal Code regarding sentencing for offenses committed against persons selected because of certain personal attributes and modifies the Public Safety Code regarding reporting crimes that exhibit evidence of prejudice.

Highlighted Provisions:

This bill:

- ▶ provides that the penalty for a criminal offense is subject to enhancement by one degree if the offender acted against an individual because of the offender's perception of the individual's ancestry, disability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, national origin, race, religion, or sexual orientation;
- ▶ provides the same enhancement provisions if the criminal offense damages property and the offender acted against the property because of the offender's perception of the individual's ancestry, disability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, national origin, race, religion, or sexual orientation;
- ▶ states that the provisions do not affect an individual's constitutional right of free speech or any other constitutional rights; and
- ▶ amends the Bureau of Criminal Identification's duties regarding recording crimes that exhibit evidence of prejudice based on specified categories.

Section 2. Section 76-3-203.12 is enacted to read:

76-3-203.12. Victim selection penalty enhancement -- Definitions -- Penalties.

(1) An actor is subject to enhanced penalties under Subsection (2) if the actor intentionally selects:

(a) the individual against whom the offense is committed in whole or in part because of the actor's belief or perception regarding an individual's ancestry, disability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, national origin, race, religion, or sexual orientation, or the association of that individual with another individual or group of individuals who have one or more of these characteristics, whether or not the actor's belief or perception was correct; or

(b) the property damaged or otherwise affected by the offense in whole or in part because of the actor's belief or perception regarding the ancestry, disability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, national origin, race, religion, or sexual orientation of the property's owner, possessor, or occupant, or the association or relationship of the property's owner, possessor, or occupant with another individual or group of individuals having one or more of these characteristics, whether or not the actor's belief or perception was correct.

(2) (a) If the trier of fact finds beyond a reasonable doubt that an actor has committed a crime and selected the individual or property in the manner described in Subsection (1), the actor is subject to an enhanced penalty for the offense under Subsection (2)(b).

(b) The enhanced penalties are:

(i) a class C misdemeanor is a class B misdemeanor;

(ii) a class B misdemeanor is a class A misdemeanor;

(iii) a class A misdemeanor is a third degree felony;

(iv) a third degree felony is a second degree felony; and

(v) a second degree felony is a first degree felony.

(3) If the trier of fact finds beyond a reasonable doubt that the actor has committed a first degree felony and selected the individual or property in the manner described in Subsection (1), the sentencing judge or the Board of Pardons and Parole shall consider:

(a) the actor's selection of the individual or property as an aggravating factor; and

(b) whether the penalty for the first degree felony is increased under another provision of state law.

(4) This section does not apply to the actor's selection of a victim because of the victim's gender in the commission of a sexual offense under Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses.

(5) This section does not prevent the court from imposing alternative sanctions as the court finds appropriate.

(6) This section does not affect or limit any individual's constitutional right to the lawful expression of free speech or other recognized rights secured by the Utah Constitution or the laws of the state, or by the United States Constitution or the laws of the United States.

(7) Subsection (1)(a) does not create a special or protected class for any purpose other than a criminal penalty enhancement under this section.
