(3) (a) The presiding officer shall determine how many divisions may be made to any motion or question.

(b) The Senate may seek to overrule the chair's decision only once.

(c) The presiding officer shall grant priority to the motions listed in Subsection (1)(a) according to the order in which they are listed in that rule.

(b) During the 43rd, 44th, and 45th day of the annual general session, and during any special session, a motion to lift a piece of legislation from a standing committee or the House Rules Committee must be approved by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

Part 3. Consent Calendar

(1) If a standing committee report recommends that a piece of legislation be placed on the consent calendar and the standing committee report is adopted by the House, the chief clerk or the chief clerk's designee shall place the legislation on the consent calendar.

(2) (a) Whenever the consent calendar contains legislation, the presiding officer shall inform the House each day that:

(i) there are items on the consent calendar; and

(ii) if any representative objects to a piece of legislation on the consent calendar, that representative should inform the chief clerk.

(b) If the chief clerk receives written objections to a piece of legislation from six or more representatives, the chief clerk shall:

Part 4. Concurrence Calendar

HR4-4-401. Concurrence calendar.

(1) After the chief clerk or the chief clerk's designee reads the transmittal letter from the Senate informing the House that the Senate has amended a piece of House legislation, the presiding officer shall place the legislation on the concurrence calendar.

(2) (a) During the first 43 days of the annual general session, the legislation shall remain on the concurrence calendar for at least one legislative day before the House may consider the question of concurrence.

(b) During the last two days of the annual general session, and during any special session, the House may consider legislation for concurrence after the House has been given a reasonable time to review the Senate amendments.

(3) (a) When presenting legislation to the House for concurrence, the presiding officer shall ask the sponsor of the legislation for a motion.

(b) The sponsor of the legislation may move to either:

(i) concur with the Senate amendments; or

(ii) refuse to concur with the Senate amendments and ask the Senate to recede from their amendments.

(4) (a) If a motion to concur with the Senate amendments passes by majority vote, the presiding officer shall open the vote on final passage of the legislation.

(b) If a motion to concur with the Senate amendments passes by a majority vote but the legislation fails to pass the final vote:

(c) If a motion to concur with the Senate amendments fails, a motion to refuse to concur with the Senate amendments and ask the Senate to recede from its amendments is in order.

(5) If a motion to refuse to concur with the Senate amendments and ask the Senate to recede from its amendments passes by a majority vote:

CHAPTER 5. COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

HR4-5-101. Committee of the whole -- Purpose -- Process.

(1) Because only members of the Utah House of Representatives may speak to the House while the House is conducting business on the floor, the House must resolve itself into a committee of the whole in order to allow non-members to address the House.

(2) The House may resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole if:

(i) asked the presiding officer to allow the representative to reserve the right to make a motion; and

(ii) received permission to do so from the presiding officer.

(b) In speaking to the matter, the representative shall confine the representative's remarks to the subject of the motion to be made.

(c) A representative may only reserve the right to make:

(i) a motion to amend the legislation being debated; or

(ii) a motion to substitute the legislation being debated.

(3) The presiding officer shall:

(a) restate each oral motion made by a representative; and

(b) ensure that each written motion made by a representative is available to any representative who requests a written copy.

(4) The representative who made a motion may withdraw it any time before the vote on the motion.

HR4-6-103. Sponsor may open and close debate.

When a piece of legislation is on a calendar and ready for debate, or after accepting a motion, the presiding officer shall:

(1) recognize the chief sponsor of the piece of legislation or of the motion and allow the chief sponsor to open and close debate on the legislation or motion; and

(2) allow the chief sponsor to close debate even if a motion to end debate has passed the House.

HR4-6-104. Interruptions and questions.

(1) A representative may not interrupt or question another representative in debate without that representative's consent.

(2) (a) To obtain consent, the querying representative shall address the presiding officer and, upon recognition by the presiding officer, ask if the representative speaking will yield the floor to a question.

HR4-6-104.5. Yielding time -- Prohibition on motions.

(1) With the approval of the presiding officer, a representative who has the floor may yield all or part of the representative's remaining time to another representative.

(2) A representative who has the floor as a result of time yielded from another representative may not make a motion.

HR4-6-105. Representatives not to speak more than twice -- Maximum speaking time.

(1) (a) Without permission from the House, a representative may not speak more than twice on the same piece of legislation, substitute legislation, or amendment in any one debate on the same day and on the same reading of the legislation.

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b)(ii), the presiding officer may not grant a representative who has spoken once permission to speak again on the same piece of legislation or substitute if any representative who has not spoken wishes to speak.

(2) A representative may not speak longer than 10 minutes at any time, unless another representative yields that representative's time to the representative who has the floor.

(3) Unless extended by a majority vote:

HR4-6-107. Substitute motions.

(1) A representative may, upon recognition by the presiding officer, make a substitute motion, which, if adopted by vote of a majority of the House, disposes of the original motion.

(2) If the substitute motion is not adopted, the original motion is revived.

(3) A representative may not:

(a) make a substitute motion if another substitute motion has been made and is pending;
or

(b) make a motion to end debate (call the previous question) as a substitute motion.

HR4-6-108. Dividing a motion or question.

(1) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b)(i), if a motion or a question in debate contains several points, a representative may ask to have the question divided for purposes of the vote.

(b) (i) A motion to strike out and insert is not subject to division.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(b)(i), the rejection of a motion to strike out and insert one proposition does not preclude a motion to strike out and insert a different proposition.

(2) The request to divide must clearly state how the motion or question is to be divided.

(3) (a) The presiding officer shall determine how many divisions may be made to any motion or question.

(b) The House may seek to overrule the chair's decision only once.

(c) The presiding officer shall grant priority to the motions listed in Subsection (1)(a) according to the order in which they are listed in that rule.

(2) (a) If an amendment or substitute to a piece of legislation has been proposed and is under consideration by the House, the presiding officer shall treat a motion to end debate (call the previous question) as directed only toward the amendment or substitute.

(b) If no motion to amend or substitute a piece of legislation has been made, the chair shall treat a motion to end debate (call the previous question) as directed toward action on the legislation itself.

(3) If a motion to postpone a piece of legislation to a day certain or a motion to return a piece of legislation to the House Rules committee is defeated, a representative may not make the same motion on the same piece of legislation during the same reading of the legislation.

(4) When a motion to refer to committee, to postpone to a time certain, or to circle is made, the presiding officer may not allow consideration of amendments or debate on the main question.

(3) When a motion to uncircle is made:

 - (b) any amendments that were being discussed at the time the legislation was circled are extinguished and a new motion to amend must be made in order to revive them.

HR4-6-203. Motion to strike the enacting clause.

- (1) When a motion to strike the enacting clause passes by a constitutional majority, the bill from which the enacting clause was stricken is dead and may not be revived.
