

Environmental Health Scientist

Summary Statistics

Created: 1995 (Chapter 20: Registered Sanitarian repealed; Chapter 20a enacted)

Number of Licensees:

2009:	230
2010:	241
2011:	231
@04/26/2012	232

Renewal Date:

May 31, odd years

License Fee:

Initial:	$60.00 (Environmental Health Scientist)
	$60.00 (Environmental Health Scientist-in-training)
Renewal:	$37.00

Number of Complaints:

2002 – 2012: 2

Complaints Resolved:

- 1 unfounded complaint
- 1 verbal warning

Definition of Scope of Practice

(3) "Practice of environmental health science" means: (a) the enforcement of, the issuance of permits required by, or the inspection for the purpose of enforcing state and local public health laws in the following areas: (i) air quality; (ii) food quality; (iii) solid, hazardous, and toxic substances disposal; (iv) consumer product safety; (v) housing; (vi) noise control; (vii) radiation protection; (viii) water quality; (ix) vector control; (x) drinking water quality; (xi) milk sanitation; (xii) rabies control; (xiii) public health nuisances; (xiv) indoor clear air regulations; (xv) institutional and residential sanitation; or (xvi) recreational facilities sanitation; or (b) representing oneself in any manner as, or using the titles "environmental health scientist," "environmental health scientist-in-training," or "registered sanitarian."

Board: 5 members: 4 licensed, 1 public

Board Meetings:

2012:	1 (scheduled June 20, 2012)
2011:	1
2010:	1
2009:	1
2008:	0
2007:	0
2006:	1
2005:	1
2004:	0
2003:	1