Section 1. Section 30-3-5 is amended to read:

30-3-5. Disposition of property -- Maintenance and health care of parties and children -- Division of debts -- Court to have continuing jurisdiction -- Custody and parent-time -- Determination of alimony -- Nonmeritorious petition for modification.

(1) When a decree of divorce is rendered, the court may include in it equitable orders relating to the children, property, debts or obligations, and parties. The court shall include the following in every decree of divorce:

(a) an order assigning responsibility for the payment of reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses of the dependent children including responsibility for health insurance out-of-pocket expenses such as co-payments, co-insurance, and deductibles;

(b) (i) if coverage is or becomes available at a reasonable cost, an order requiring the

33 purchase and maintenance of appropriate health, hospital, and dental care insurance for the 34 dependent children; and

35 (ii) a designation of which health, hospital, or dental insurance plan is primary and 36 which health, hospital, or dental insurance plan is secondary in accordance with the provisions
37 of Section 30-3-5.4 which will take effect if at any time a dependent child is covered by both 38 parents' health, hospital, or dental insurance plans;

39 (c) pursuant to Section 15-4-6.5:

40 (i) an order specifying which party is responsible for the payment of joint debts,
41 obligations, or liabilities of the parties contracted or incurred during marriage;

42 (ii) an order requiring the parties to notify respective creditors or obligees, regarding 43 the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities and regarding the parties' separate,
44 current addresses; and

45 (iii) provisions for the enforcement of these orders; and

46 (d) provisions for income withholding in accordance with Title 62A, Chapter 11,
47 Recovery Services.

48 (2) The court may include, in an order determining child support, an order assigning 49 financial responsibility for all or a portion of child care expenses incurred on behalf of the 50 dependent children, necessitated by the employment or training of the custodial parent. If the 51 court determines that the circumstances are appropriate and that the dependent children would 52 be adequately cared for, it may include an order allowing the noncustodial parent to provide 53 child care for the dependent children, necessitated by the employment or training of the 54 custodial parent.

55 (3) The court has continuing jurisdiction to make subsequent changes or new orders for 56 the custody of the children and their support, maintenance, health, and dental care, and for 57 distribution of the property and obligations for debts as is reasonable and necessary.

58 (4) Child support, custody, visitation, and other matters related to children born to the 59 mother and father after entry of the decree of divorce may be added to the decree by 60 modification.

61 (5) (a) In determining parent-time rights of parents and visitation rights of grandparents
62 and other members of the immediate family, the court shall consider the best interest of the 63 child.

64 (b) Upon a specific finding by the court of the need for peace officer enforcement, the 65 court may include in an order establishing a parent-time or visitation schedule a provision,
66 among other things, authorizing any peace officer to enforce a court-ordered parent-time or 67 visitation schedule entered under this chapter.

68 (6) If a petition for modification of child custody or parent-time provisions of a court
69 order is made and denied, the court shall order the petitioner to pay the reasonable attorneys'
70 fees expended by the prevailing party in that action, if the court determines that the petition
71 was without merit and not asserted or defended against in good faith.

72 (7) If a petition alleges noncompliance with a parent-time order by a parent, or a 73 visitation order by a grandparent or other member of the immediate family where a visitation or 74 parent-time right has been previously granted by the court, the court may award to the 75 prevailing party costs, including actual attorney fees and court costs incurred by the prevailing 76 party because of the other party's failure to provide or exercise court-ordered visitation or 77 parent-time.

78 (8) (a) The court shall consider at least the following factors in determining alimony:

79 (i) the financial condition and needs of the recipient spouse;

80 (ii) the recipient's earning capacity or ability to produce income;

81 (iii) the ability of the payor spouse to provide support;

82 (iv) the length of the marriage;

83 (v) whether the recipient spouse has custody of minor children requiring support;

84 (vi) whether the recipient spouse worked in a business owned or operated by the payor
85 spouse; and

86 (vii) whether the recipient spouse directly contributed to any increase in the payor
87 spouse's skill by paying for education received by the payor spouse or ~~allowing~~ enabling the 88 payor spouse to attend school during the marriage.

89 (b) The court may consider the fault of the parties in determining ~~alimony~~ whether or 90 not to award alimony. An alimony award is not considered punitive if it complies with this 91 subsection.

92 (c) "Fault" means that one party committed substantiated acts or engaged in 93 substantiated behavior during the marriage that unilaterally and substantially compromised the 94 marriage, or unilaterally and substantially harmed the physical safety, or financial stability of

95 the other party or their minor children, including:

96 (i) sexual relations with a person who is not the party's spouse; or

97 (ii) physical abuse of the spouse or minor children.

98 (d) A party may stipulate to an allegation of fault.

99 (e) The court may, when fault is at issue, close the proceedings and seal the court
100 records.

101 ~~(c)~~ (f) As a general rule, the court should look to the standard of living, existing at the 102 time of separation, in determining alimony in accordance with Subsection (8)(a). However, the 103 court shall consider all relevant facts and equitable principles and may, in its discretion, base
104 alimony on the standard of living that existed at the time of trial. In marriages of short 105 duration, when no children have been conceived or born during the marriage, the court may 106 consider the standard of living that existed at the time of the marriage.

107 ~~(d)~~ (g) The court may, under appropriate circumstances, attempt to equalize the 108 parties' respective standards of living.

109 ~~(e)~~ (h) When a marriage of long duration dissolves on the threshold of a major
110 change in the income of one of the spouses due to the collective efforts of both, that change
111 shall be considered in dividing the marital property and in determining the amount of alimony.
112 If one spouse's earning capacity has been greatly enhanced through the efforts of both spouses
113 during the marriage, the court may make a compensating adjustment in dividing the marital 114 property and awarding alimony.

115 ~~(f)~~ (i) In determining alimony when a marriage of short duration dissolves, and no
116 children have been conceived or born during the marriage, the court may consider restoring 117 each party to the condition which existed at the time of the marriage.

118 ~~(g)~~ (j) (i) The court has continuing jurisdiction to make substantive changes and new 119 orders regarding alimony based on a substantial material change in circumstances not 120 foreseeable at the time of the divorce.

121 (ii) The court may not modify alimony or issue a new order for alimony to address
122 needs of the recipient that did not exist at the time the decree was entered, unless the court
123 finds extenuating circumstances that justify that action.

124 (iii) In determining alimony, the income of any subsequent spouse of the payor may not 125 be considered, except as provided in this Subsection (8).

126 (A) The court may consider the subsequent spouse's financial ability to share living
127 expenses.

128 (B) The court may consider the income of a subsequent spouse if the court finds that 129 the payor's improper conduct justifies that consideration.

130 ~~(h)~~ (k) Alimony may not be ordered for a duration longer than the number of years
131 that the marriage existed unless, at any time prior to termination of alimony, the court finds 132 extenuating circumstances that justify the payment of alimony for a longer period of time.

133 (9) Unless a decree of divorce specifically provides otherwise, any order of the court
134 that a party pay alimony to a former spouse automatically terminates upon the remarriage or 135 death of that former spouse. However, if the remarriage is annulled and found to be void ab 136 initio, payment of alimony shall resume if the party paying alimony is made a party to the 137 action of annulment and ~~his~~ the payor party's rights are determined.

138 (10) Any order of the court that a party pay alimony to a former spouse terminates
139 upon establishment by the party paying alimony that the former spouse is cohabitating with 140 another person.
