Bill Number HB0029

24-Jan-98

10:49 AM

It is anticipated that this bill will generate a small amount of revenue and result in a small increase in expenses. The minimum fines provisions of this bill could generate as much as $6,000. At the same time, the increased fines will result in reduced bail forfeitures and add three or four new trials. It is thought that the added revenue and the added court fees would probably offset.
