
Fiscal Note
Bill Number HB0099

28-Jan-98

2:51 PM

Since misdemeanants do not normally go to prison, there would be no savings to the State. The good behavior practice may result in some savings to local governments, but is already being used in some counties. There would be a theoretical savings for felony offenses, but since jail reimbursement is not at full funding, no savings are anticipated.

Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst