
Fiscal Note
Bill Number SB0170

18-Feb-98

1:19 PM

Passage of this bill could result in a shifting of the workers' compensation market. It is estimated that though resources may shift between companies, there will probably not be a significant overall fiscal impact. Any additional expenses allocated by State or local government to change operations would be offset by potential savings in the workers' compensation system.

Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst