

No State or local government fiscal impact.

Individual and Business Impact

The provisions of this bill may have varied fiscal impact on insurance carriers, depending on the insurer and the relationship to some provisions. Several provisions may result in lower premiums for policy holders, while other provisions may increase administrative processes and expenses. These expenses or savings and how they impact the insureds cannot be quantified.

Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst