

AMENDED BILL

No significant State or local government fiscal impact.

Individual and Business Impact

Some provisions of this bill could increase the amount of payments to contractors and subcontractors earlier in the process. This may increase overhead expenses for private owners having structures built. The amount of increase, if any, depends on the amount that the company currently retains.

Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst