Provisions of this bill could effect savings to the State's Residence Lien Recovery Fund, making more funds available to qualified claimants. Savings would come from a reduced interest rate and the claim application fee that would no longer be reimbursable. It is estimated that these savings could be more than $10,800 per year. Appropriations are not made to or from this Fund.

Individual and Business Impact

Additional time and expense may be incurred by claimants for preparing and filing the documents required by this bill. The $75.00 claim application fee may no longer be reimbursable.
