

No State or local government fiscal impact.

Individual and Business Impact

In most cases, there should be little or no additional costs. There may be additional expenses for companies which do not currently have their financial statements audited at least semiannually. This could increase costs up to $10,000 every other year for these companies.

Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst