Unauthorized Charges on Utility Bills - Cramming
Amendments

18-Jan-00
5:19 PM

Based on estimated refunds as a result of consumer disputes, state and local government may experience a small loss of sales tax revenue. This loss could potentially grow over the years as more services are billed through public utility companies.

Individual and Business Impact

There may be financial relief for some consumers. Some companies that bill their services through a utility may incur increased compliance expenses.
