

State Impact

A school district may be limited in its ability to close a school, and thus precluded from cost savings measures by not closing a school it might have otherwise closed. It cannot be determined what cost implication this could have on a school district without knowing their intentions.

Individual and Business Impact

There is no impact.

Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst