

State Impact

No significant fiscal impact in the near future. Potential savings to the Department of Corrections for reduced incarceration time would not be realized for five to ten years. These potential savings are estimated to be minimal.

---

Individual and Business Impact

There could be a decreased length of stay in prison for those convicted under this legislation which may affect their long-term personal earnings.

---

Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst