

State Impact

The provisions of this bill require the development of an emergency response plan for sports programs and that sports personnel are trained according to the plan. It is anticipated that school districts can provide this training within current professional development programs for affected personnel. This impact may be reduced in following years as only new personnel will need to be trained.

Individual and Business Impact

No Fiscal Impact
