

State Impact

There will be some costs associated with the implementation of the provisions of this bill, but they can be handled within existing budgetary levels of the Department of Health.

Individual and Business Impact

Health care providers could incur some minimal costs in providing information to the Department of Health.

Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst