State Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(b)

Enactment of this legislation may increase revenues to the State Parks Fees Restricted Account if the Division of Parks and Recreation determines that the expanded Goblin Valley State Park would be financially self sustaining and the United States Bureau of Land Management agrees to transfer, sell, or lease the land to the Division of Parks and Recreation.

Revenues	FY 2015	FY 2016	FY 2017
Total Revenues	$0	$0	$0

Enactment of this legislation may increase the costs to the Division of Parks and Recreation from the State Parks Fees Restricted Account for capital improvements and operations of the expanded Goblin Valley State Park if the division determines that the new park will be financially self sustaining and the United States Bureau of Land Management agrees to transfer, sell, or lease the land to the Division of Parks and Recreation. The costs for the initial assessments of the profitability of the proposal can be handled with the division's existing resources.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
