State Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(b)

Enactment of this legislation could increase revenues to the new Utah Law Enforcement Memorial Support Restricted Account in the amount of $12,500 annually beginning in October of FY 2016, assuming the $25 annual fee for special group license plates is paid by approximately 500 Utah residents. If license plate production start-up costs are covered by an appropriation or private donation, dedicated credits and corresponding expenditures for the Tax Commission could be $7,400.

Revenues	FY 2015	FY 2016	FY 2017
Restricted Funds	$0	$9,400	$12,500
Dedicated Credits	$0	$7,400	$0
Total Revenues	$0	$16,800	$12,500

Enactment of this legislation could cost the Tax Commission $7,400 one-time in dedicated credits in FY 2016 if license plate production start-up costs are covered by an appropriation or private donation. The commissioner of Public Safety is directed to distribute funds appropriated by the Legislature from this new account for the operation and maintenance of the Utah Law Enforcement Memorial.

Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Individuals could provide an amount of $12,500 in annual revenue, assuming approximately 500 individuals choose to purchase these special group license plates for $25 annually at the time of registration, in addition to other applicable license plate fees.

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
