Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation could allow certain residential customers to receive electric service from independent energy producers. The impact on customers and independent energy producers cannot be quantified at this time, particularly as the Public Service Commission may adjust charges, credits, or ratemaking structure based on its assessment of costs and benefits in an agreement between customers and independent energy producers.

Performance Note

JR4-2-404

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
