Local Government UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this bill may alter the distribution of funding appropriated by the Legislature for Special Education Intensive Services among local education agencies (LEAs). Current funding is allocated to LEAs on a cost reimbursement basis and LEAs receive a proportional distribution based on the total amount requested and the amount of funding available. Until the State Board of Education develops a distribution model as directed in the bill, it is not possible to estimate changes for individual LEAs.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable expenditures by Utah residents or businesses.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
