Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Depending on the case, local prosecuting entities could collect up to $7,500 per case and cost an additional unknown amount for legal costs. Assuming one class B misdemeanor conviction per year, this could generate up to $2,500 to local entities processing the case and will cost an additional unknown amount to process these cases.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Violators of certain provisions of the bill could pay up to $28,500 in fees ($15,000 in initial fees plus an additional $13,500 in surcharge fees). Assuming an individual is convicted of a class B misdemeanor, they will pay up to $3,400 in fines ($2,500 for the outlined fee in the bill and an additional $900 in criminal surcharge fees). A violator may also be required to pay restitution where applicable.

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
