Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this bill could increase costs to insurers for amending, updating and filing new forms as well as costs to re-underwrite all policies, change premiums and notify insureds of new rates. Enactment of the bill could also have a fiscal impact on consumers and businesses that have opted out of the uninsured and underinsured motorist coverage and will be required to buy it under the provisions of the bill. Costs will vary by individual and business.

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
