Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Bill provisions split the cost of the $5,000 salary bonus between the state and the teacher's school district or charter school. LEAs that have qualifying teachers and apply to the State Board of Education for a salary bonus may see additional costs associated with providing the required matching funds.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable expenditures by Utah residents or businesses.

Performance Note

JR4-2-404

Required of the State Board of Education and due by February 14, 2017

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
