State Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(b)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not materially impact state revenue.

Revenues	FY 2017	FY 2018	FY 2019
Total Revenues	$0	$0	$0

Enactment of this legislation could lead to costs from the General Fund beginning in FY 2018 to the extent that the Courts, the Department of Corrections, and the Board of Pardons and Parole experience increased incarcerations and workloads or if a sentence is for prison time instead of jail time. The amount would be determined by the number of cases and the degree change of each case.

Expenditures	FY 2017	FY 2018	FY 2019
Total Expenditures	$0	$0	$0

Net All Funds	$0	$0	$0

Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation could lead to lower costs for counties to the extent that a sentence is for prison time instead of jail time. The amount would be determined by the number of cases and the degree change of each case.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable expenditures by Utah residents or businesses.

Performance Note

JR4-2-404

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
