Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation may result in local government enforcing agencies receiving additional revenues for approximately 300 violations for tobacco sales to minors. The dollar value of each fine, and therefore total collections statewide, will depend on the circumstances of each violation. Additionally, this legislation may result in the thirteen local health departments statewide receiving about $20,000 in new permit fee revenues which will be used to pay for staff for compliance inspections.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation may result in approximately 300 violations of businesses selling to minors, and their paying the associated penalties. The dollar value of each fine, and therefore total payments statewide, will depend on the circumstances of each violation. Additionally, enactment of this legislation may result in about 200 retail tobacco specialty businesses paying $100 in new permit fees annually.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
