Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation could cost the state's 13 Local Health Districts (LHDs) a total of $130,000 one-time to develop an Agritourism Food Establishment permit program. If passed, LHDs could generate approximately $1,300 for each Agritourism Food Establishment permit issued. Revenues would vary depending on the number of permits issued and cannot be estimated in aggregate at this time.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation could cost businesses $1,300 per year to obtain an annual Agritourism Food Establishment permit. In the case of a foodborne illness outbreak, responsible businesses would also be subject to paying for the cost of the investigation to Local Health Districts. Statewide costs to businesses for permits and investigations would vary and cannot be estimated in aggregate at this time.

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(e)

Enactment of this legislation could result in a small increase in the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

Required of the Utah Assoc. Local Health Districts and due by February 04, 2020

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
