The Governors Office of Management and Budget has indicated it can absorb the costs in its existing budget. This legislation also transfers the existing Public Lands Policy Coordinating Office, estimated to be approximately $4,282,400 ongoing, to the Governors Office. This transfer does not increase costs to the state.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
