Revenues	FY 2021	FY 2022	FY 2023
Total Revenues	$0	$0	$0

To the extent that an individual violates the Utah Health Code, enactment of this bill could result in lower fee revenues to the General Fund of $9,850 per violation of a state health order. To the extent that more people are convicted as a result of this bill and pay their financial obligation, this could increase revenue/case in the following amounts: (1) General Fund $290; (2) Court Security Account $38.

Expenditures	FY 2021	FY 2022	FY 2023
Total Expenditures	$0	$0	$0

To the extent that Legislative Emergency Response Committee convenes to review a declared state of emergency, and does so on a day other than when the Legislature is holding meetings anyway, enactment of this bill could cost the House of Representatives $6,000, the Senate $6,000, and Legislative Research and General Counsel $3,600 for each day the committee meets. To the extent that the Legislature meets in special session to extend a state of emergency, and does so on a day other than when the Legislature is holding meetings anyway, it could cost the Legislature approximately $50,000 for each day of special session.

Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

To the extent that an individual violates the Utah Health Code, enactment of this bill could result in lower local government fee revenue of $9,850 per violation of a local health department order. To the extent that more people are convicted as a result of this bill and pay their financial obligation, enactment of this bill could increase revenue to local governments by about $350/case for fines/fees. This bill could also cost justice courts an unknown amount in court processing costs and county jails about $83/day/offender in incarceration costs.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

To the extent that an individual violates the Utah Health Code, enactment of this bill could result in lower fee payments of $9,850 per occurrence. To the extent that individuals violate provisions of this bill, this could cost certain offenders about $680/case, however, the total amount is unknown.

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation could result in a small reduction in the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
