

Fund 8090 Human Services-ORS Support Collections

Agency(s): Human Services

Analyst: Stephen Jardine

Purpose and Uses

This fund is used to facilitate the transferring of court-ordered child support payments by a non-custodial parent to a custodial parent.

Accountability

Money in this fund is subject to federal regulations dealing with: 1) the appeals process, 2) interstate child support payments, and 3) disbursement timeframes. As required, the Office of Recovery Services reports quarterly to the federal government regarding child support collections and disbursements. There are both federal and internal auditors who review the Child Support program. There have been no significant audit findings in the last three years. The Accountability is colored yellow because there are no state government fund-specific reports.

Recommendation

Due to the materiality and fiduciary nature of this fund, the Analyst recommends the fund be reported annually to the Social Services Appropriations Subcommittee.

*Revenues and Expenses include Net Transfers; Dollar figures in thousands

Graph Notes

The largest amounts of money flowing into the account are court-ordered child support payments by a non-custodial parent to a custodial parent. The nature of these transfers results in a zero balance after the transaction.
