

10-2-301 Classification of municipalities according to population.

(1) Each municipality shall be classified according to its population, as provided in this section.

(2)

- (a) A municipality with a population of 100,000 or more is a city of the first class.
- (b) A municipality with a population of 65,000 or more but less than 100,000 is a city of the second class.
- (c) A municipality with a population of 30,000 or more but less than 65,000 is a city of the third class.
- (d) A municipality with a population of 10,000 or more but less than 30,000 is a city of the fourth class.
- (e) A municipality with a population of 1,000 or more but less than 10,000 is a city of the fifth class.
- (f) A municipality with a population under 1,000 is a town.

Amended by Chapter 292, 2003 General Session