

10-3b-105 Municipal council in six-member council and five-member council forms of government.

In a municipality operating under a six-member council form of government or a five-member council form of government, the council:

- (1) is the legislative body of the municipality and exercises the legislative powers and performs the legislative duties and functions of the municipality; and
- (2) may:
 - (a) adopt rules and regulations, not inconsistent with statute, for the efficient administration, organization, operation, conduct, and business of the municipality;
 - (b) prescribe by resolution additional duties, powers, and responsibilities for any elected or appointed municipal official, unless prohibited by statute;
 - (c) require by ordinance that any or all appointed officers reside in the municipality;
 - (d) create any office that the council considers necessary for the government of the municipality;
 - (e) provide for filling a vacancy in an elective or appointive office;
 - (f) take any action allowed under Section 10-8-84; and
 - (g) perform any function specifically provided for by statute or necessarily implied by law.
