

10-7-79 Power of board of city commissioners or council to provide for development of resources.

The boards of city commissioners or city councils of the respective cities within the state are authorized and empowered to provide for the development of the city's mineral, water, manpower, industrial and other resources.

Enacted by Chapter 16, 1965 General Session