

4-1-9 Growing or storing food for personal or family use.

- (1) As used in this section, "family food" means food owned by an individual that is intended for the individual's consumption, or for consumption by members of the individual's immediate family, that:
 - (a) is legal for human consumption;
 - (b) is lawfully possessed; and
 - (c) poses no risk:
 - (i) to health;
 - (ii) of spreading insect infestation; or
 - (iii) of spreading agricultural disease.
- (2) Family food that is grown by an individual on the individual's property is not subject to local or federal regulation if growth of the family food:
 - (a) does not negatively impact the rights of adjoining property owners; and
 - (b) complies with the food safety requirements of this title.
- (3) A government entity may not confiscate family food described in Subsection (2) or family food that is stored by the owner in the owner's home or dwelling.
- (4) If any provision of this section or the application of any provision of this section to any person or circumstance is held invalid by a final decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this section shall be given effect without the invalid provision or application. The provisions of this section are severable.
