

Renumbered 5/12/2015

63M-1-1108 Duration of designation.

A recycling market development zone designation ends five years from the date the office designates the area as a recycling market development zone, at the end of which the county or municipality may reapply for the designation.