

70C-2-105 Attorney's fees.

A consumer credit agreement may provide for the payment of reasonable attorney's fees in the event of default and referral to an attorney including one who is a salaried employee of the creditor or its assignee.

Enacted by Chapter 159, 1985 General Session