

72-8-105 Pedestrian safety to be considered in highway planning.

A highway authority shall consider pedestrian safety in all highway engineering and planning where pedestrian traffic may be a significant factor on all projects within the state or any of its political subdivisions.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 270, 1998 General Session