After the service of summons in the manner prescribed by Section 73-4-4 hereof, it shall be the duty of every person served to thereafter follow all court proceedings and no further or additional notice shall be required except the notice that the survey has been completed and the water users claim is due as prescribed by Section 73-4-3, and notice of the proposed determinations as provided by Section 73-4-11. The district court may, however, require notice of other proceedings to be given when, in the judgment of the court, it deems notice necessary.
