affidavit with the prosecuting entity. The affidavit shall contain the factual information required in this section and by the court.

- (b) A defendant claiming indigency who is charged with a crime the penalty of which is less than a class A misdemeanor is not required to comply with the requirements of Subsection (2)(a) and Subsection (4).

(a) "Indigency" means that a person:

- (ii) the ownership of, or any interest in, any tangible or intangible personal property or real property, or reasonable expectancy of any such interest;
- (iii) the amounts of debts owned by the defendant or that might reasonably be incurred by the defendant because of illness or other needs within the defendant's family;

(b) Upon finding indigence when the defendant has privately retained counsel, the court, subject to Section 77-32-303, shall enter the findings into the record and issue an order directing the county or municipality to coordinate the providing of defense resources as appropriate.

(c) The clerk of the court shall send a copy of the affidavit and order to the prosecutor and to the county clerk or municipal recorder.

(5) If the county or municipality providing the defense services provider has any objections to or concerns with the finding of indigency and assignment of a defense services provider or the continuing of indigency status and assignment of a defense services provider, it shall file notice with the court and a hearing shall be scheduled to review the findings and give the county or municipality the opportunity to present evidence and arguments as to the reasons the finding of indigency should be reversed and the court shall proceed as provided in Section 77-32-302.

    - (i) set the matter for a hearing;
    - (ii) give proper notice of the hearing to the attorney of the responsible county or municipality and county clerk or municipal recorder; and

- (3) The court may order, and the county or municipality may provide, defense resources to a defendant represented by private counsel only if:
  - (a) the court conducts a hearing with proper notice to the county clerk or municipal recorder, with a copy of the notice provided to the prosecutor;
  - (b) the court conducts an in camera review of the defense contract, a full accounting of the defense retainer, anticipated costs of defense resources and other relevant defense records and finds by clear and convincing evidence all of the following:
    - (i) the defendant would be prejudiced by the substitution of a contracted defense services provider and any prejudice cannot be remedied by a continuance or other alternative means;
    - (ii) at the time of retention of private counsel, the defendant and attorney entered into a written contract which provided that the defendant had the means to pay for fees and defense resources;
    - (iii) there has been an unforeseen change in circumstances which requires defense resources beyond the defendant's ability to pay; and
    - (iv) all of the above representations are made in good faith and are not calculated to allow the defendant or defense attorney to avoid the requirements of this section.
