

77-7-11 Possession of warrant by arresting officer not required.

Any peace officer who has knowledge of an outstanding warrant of arrest may arrest a person he reasonably believes to be the person described in the warrant, without the peace officer having physical possession of the warrant.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session