

HR4-6-105 Representatives not to speak more than twice -- Maximum speaking time.

- (1)
 - (a) Without permission from the House, a representative may not speak more than twice on the same piece of legislation, substitute legislation, or amendment in any one debate on the same day and on the same reading of the legislation.
 - (b)
 - (i) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b)(ii), the presiding officer may not grant a representative who has spoken once permission to speak again on the same piece of legislation or substitute if any representative who has not spoken wishes to speak.
 - (ii) The presiding officer may grant a representative who has spoken once permission to respond to a question if the representative consents to a request that the representative yield to a question under HR4-6-104.
- (2) A representative may not speak longer than 10 minutes at any time, unless another representative yields that representative's time to the representative who has the floor.
- (3) Unless extended by a majority vote:
 - (a) during the first 38 days of an annual general session, the presiding officer may not allow the House to debate a piece of legislation for more than eight hours; and
 - (b) during the last seven days of an annual general session, the presiding officer may not allow the House to debate a piece of legislation for more than two hours.
