

HR4-9-101 Motion to reconsider.

- (1) As used in this section, "legislative day" means a day when the House of Representatives convenes in the House chamber and conducts House business.
- (2)
 - (a) Except as provided in Subsection (3), when a question has been decided on the floor of the House, a representative voting with the prevailing side may move for reconsideration after intervening business.
 - (b) If the motion to reconsider is to reconsider passage of a piece of legislation, the representative making the motion shall include the number and short title of the legislation as part of the motion.
 - (c) If a motion for reconsideration is made on the floor of the House after a piece of legislation has left the possession of the House, the chief clerk shall request that the legislation be returned to the House.
 - (d) The presiding officer shall rule a motion for reconsideration out of order unless the motion is made:
 - (i) before the 43rd legislative day;
 - (ii) before the House adjourns on the legislative day after the legislative day on which the action sought to be reconsidered occurred; and
 - (iii) by a representative who previously served notice.
- (3) A representative may not make a motion to reconsider after the 42nd day of the annual general session of the Legislature.
