

JR4-4-201 Transmittal letters.

The secretary of the Senate or the chief clerk of the House of Representatives shall:

- (1) attach a transmittal letter signed by the secretary or clerk to each piece of legislation to be transmitted to the opposite house; and
- (2) ensure that the piece of legislation, with its transmittal letter, is sent to the opposite house.