SR3-2-504 Motions in committee -- Motions in order during debate.

- (1)
 - (a) When a motion or question is being debated, the standing committee chair may not accept any other motion except a motion:
 - (i) to adjourn, which is nondebatable;
 - (ii) to determine the time to which to adjourn, which is debatable;
 - (iii) to recess, which is nondebatable;
 - (iv) to end debate (call the previous question), which is nondebatable and requires a majority vote to pass;
 - (v) to refer to another committee, which is debatable;
 - (vi) to extend the time for debate, which is debatable;
 - (vii) to limit debate, which is debatable;
 - (viii) to postpone to a time certain, which is debatable;
 - (ix) to table, which is nondebatable;
 - (x) to take from the table, which is nondebatable;
 - (xi) to adopt a substitute, which is debatable; or
 - (xii) to amend, which is debatable.
 - (b) Points of order and appeals of the decision of the chair are not motions and are always in order.
 - (c) The standing committee chair shall grant priority to the motions listed in Subsection (1)(a) according to the order in which they are listed in that subsection.
 - (d) The standing committee chair shall terminate debate if the standing committee adopts a motion to end debate by a majority vote.
- (2) If a motion to postpone a piece of legislation to a day certain, to postpone a piece of legislation indefinitely, or to return a piece of legislation to the Senate Rules Committee is defeated, a committee member may not make the same motion on the same piece of legislation during the same committee meeting.
