17                   76-5-205.5, Utah Code Annotated 1953

18 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

19                   Section 1. Section 76-2-305 is amended to read:

20                   76-2-305. Mental illness -- Use as a defense -- Influence of alcohol or other substance
21 voluntarily consumed -- Definition.

22                   (1) (a) It is a defense to a prosecution under any statute or ordinance that the defendant,
23 as a result of mental illness, lacked the mental state required as an element of the offense charged.

24                   (b) Mental illness is not otherwise a defense, but may be evidence in mitigation of the 25 penalty in a capital felony under Section 76-3-207 and may be evidence of special mitigation
26 reducing the level of a criminal homicide or attempted criminal homicide offense under Section
27 76-5-205.5.

28 (2) The defense defined in this section includes the defenses known as "insanity" and 29 "diminished mental capacity."

30 (3) A person who asserts a defense of insanity or diminished mental capacity, and who is 31 under the influence of voluntarily consumed [or], injected, or ingested alcohol, controlled
32 substances, or volatile substances at the time of the alleged offense is not excused from criminal 33 responsibility on the basis of mental illness if the alcohol or substance caused, triggered, or 34 substantially contributed to the mental illness.

35 (4) (a) "Mental illness" means a mental disease or defect that substantially impairs a
36 person's mental, emotional, or behavioral functioning. A mental defect may be a congenital 37 condition, the result of injury, or a residual effect of a physical or mental disease and includes, but 38 is not limited to, mental retardation.

39 (b) "Mental illness" does not mean:

40 (i) a personality or character disorder; or

41 (ii) an abnormality manifested [only] primarily by repeated criminal conduct.

42 (5) "Mental retardation" means a significant subaverage general intellectual functioning,
43 existing concurrently with deficits in adaptive behavior, and manifested during the developmental 44 period as defined by the current Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of the American Psychiatric 45 Association.

46 Section 2. Section 76-5-203 is amended to read:

47 76-5-203. Murder.

48 (1) Criminal homicide constitutes murder if the actor:

49 (a) intentionally or knowingly causes the death of another;

50 (b) intending to cause serious bodily injury to another commits an act clearly dangerous
51 to human life that causes the death of another;

52 (c) acting under circumstances evidencing a depraved indifference to human life engages
53 in conduct which creates a grave risk of death to another and thereby causes the death of another;

54 (d) while in the commission, attempted commission, or immediate flight from the 55 commission or attempted commission of aggravated robbery, robbery, rape, object rape, forcible
56 sodomy, or aggravated sexual assault, aggravated arson, arson, aggravated burglary, burglary,
57 aggravated kidnapping, kidnapping, child kidnapping, rape of a child, object rape of a child,
58 sodomy upon a child, forcible sexual abuse, sexual abuse of a child, aggravated sexual abuse of

59 a child, or child abuse, as defined in Subsection 76-5-109 (2)(a), when the victim is younger than 60 14 years of age, causes the death of another person other than a party as defined in Section 61 76-2-202; [or]

62 (e) recklessly causes the death of a peace officer while in the commission or attempted 63 commission of:

64 (i) an assault against a peace officer as defined in Section 76-5-102.4; or

65 (ii) interference with a peace officer while making a lawful arrest as defined in Section 66 76-8-305 if the actor uses force against a peace officer[.]; or

67 (f) commits aggravated murder, but special mitigation is established under Section
68 76-5-205.5.

69 (2) Murder is a first degree felony.

70 Section 3. Section 76-5-205 is amended to read:

71 76-5-205. Manslaughter.

72 (1) Criminal homicide constitutes manslaughter if the actor:

73 (a) recklessly causes the death of another; [or]

74 (b) causes the death of another under the influence of extreme emotional disturbance for 75 which there is a reasonable explanation or excuse; [or]

76 (c) causes the death of another under circumstances where the actor reasonably believes 77 the circumstances provide a legal justification or excuse for his conduct although the conduct is 78 not legally justifiable or excusable under the existing circumstances[.]; or

79 (d) commits murder, but special mitigation is established under Section 76-5-205.5.

80 (2) Under Subsection (1) (b), emotional disturbance does not include a condition resulting 81 from mental illness as defined in Section 76-2-305.

82 (3) The reasonableness of an explanation or excuse under Subsection (1) (b), or the 83 reasonable belief of the actor under Subsection (1) (c), shall be determined from the viewpoint of 84 a reasonable person under the then existing circumstances.

85 (4) Manslaughter is a felony of the second degree.

86 Section 4. Section 76-5-205.5 is enacted to read:

87 76-5-205.5. Special mitigation reducing the level of criminal homicide offense --

88 Burden of proof -- Application to reduce offense.

89 (1) Special mitigation exists when:

90 (a) the actor causes the death of another under circumstances that are not legally justified,
91 but the actor acts under a delusion attributable to a mental illness as defined in Section 76-2-305;
92 and

93 (b) the nature of the delusion is such that, if the facts existed as the defendant believed 94 them to be in his delusional state, those facts would provide a legal justification for his conduct.

95 (2) This section applies only if the defendant's actions, in light of his delusion, were 96 reasonable from the objective viewpoint of a reasonable person.

97 (3) A defendant who was under the influence of voluntarily consumed, injected, or
98 ingested alcohol, controlled substances, or volatile substances at the time of the alleged offense
99 may not claim mitigation of the offense under this section on the basis of mental illness if the 100 alcohol or substance caused, triggered, or substantially contributed to the mental illness.

101 (4) (a) If the trier of fact finds the elements of an offense as listed in Subsection (4)(b) are 102 proven beyond a reasonable doubt, and also that the existence of special mitigation under this
103 section is established by a preponderance of the evidence, it shall return a verdict on the reduced
104 charge as provided in Subsection (4)(b).

105 (b) If under Subsection (4)(a) the offense is:

106 (i) aggravated murder, the defendant shall instead be found guilty of murder;

107 (ii) attempted aggravated murder, the defendant shall instead be found guilty of attempted
108 murder;

109 (iii) murder, the defendant shall instead be found guilty of manslaughter; or

110 (iv) attempted murder, the defendant shall instead be found guilty of attempted
111 manslaughter.

112 (5) (a) If a jury is the trier of fact, a unanimous vote of the jury is required to establish the 113 existence of the special mitigation.

114 (b) If the jury does find special mitigation by a unanimous vote, it shall return a verdict
115 on the reduced charge as provided in Subsection (4).

116 (c) If the jury finds by a unanimous vote that special mitigation has not been established,
117 it shall convict the defendant of the greater offense for which the prosecution has established all
118 the elements beyond a reasonable doubt.

119 (d) If the jury is unable to unanimously agree whether or not special mitigation has been 120 established, the result is a hung jury.

121 (6) (a) If the issue of special mitigation is submitted to the trier of fact, it shall return a
122 special verdict indicating whether the existence of special mitigation has been found.

123 (b) The trier of fact shall return the special verdict at the same time as the general verdict.

124 (7) Special mitigation under this section does not, in any case, reduce the level of an 125 offense by more than one degree from that offense, the elements of which the evidence has 126 established beyond a reasonable doubt.

127 Section 5. Section 77-14-4 is amended to read:

128 77-14-4. Insanity or diminished mental capacity -- Notice requirement.

129 (1) If a defendant proposes to offer evidence that he is not guilty as a result of insanity or 130 that he had diminished mental capacity, or proposes to offer evidence in mitigation of a criminal
131 homicide or attempted criminal homicide offense under Section 76-5-205.5, he shall file and serve 132 the prosecuting attorney with written notice of his intention to claim the defense at the time of 133 arraignment or as soon afterward as practicable, but not fewer than 30 days before the trial.

134 (2) If the court receives notice that a defendant intends to claim that he is not guilty by 135 reason of insanity or that he had diminished mental capacity, the court shall proceed in accordance 136 with the requirements described in Section 77-16a-301.

137 Section 6. Section 77-16a-301 is amended to read:

138 77-16a-301. Mental examination of defendant

139 (1) (a) When the court receives notice that a defendant intends to claim that he is not guilty
140 by reason of insanity or that he had diminished mental capacity, or that he intends to assert special
141 mitigation under Subsection 76-5-205.5, the court shall order the Department of Human Services
142 to examine the defendant and investigate his mental condition.

143 (b) The person or organization directed by the department to conduct the examination shall 144 testify at the request of the court or either party in any proceeding in which the testimony is 145 otherwise admissible.

146 (c) Pending trial, unless the court or the executive director directs otherwise, the defendant
147 shall be retained in the same custody or status he was in at the time the examination was ordered.

148 (2) (a) The defendant shall make himself available and fully cooperate in the examination
149 by the department and any other independent examiners for the defense and the prosecuting
150 attorney.

151 (b) If the defendant fails to make himself available and fully cooperate, and that failure is

152 established to the satisfaction of the court at a hearing prior to trial, the defendant is barred from 153 presenting expert testimony relating to his defense of mental illness at the trial of the case.

154 (c) The department shall complete the examination within 30 days after the court's order,
155 and shall prepare and provide to the court prosecutor and defense counsel a written report
156 concerning the condition of the defendant.

157 (3) Within ten days after receipt of the report from the department, but not later than five 158 days before the trial of the case, or at any other time the court directs, the prosecuting attorney shall 159 file and serve upon the defendant a notice of rebuttal of the defense of mental illness, which shall 160 contain the names of witnesses the prosecuting attorney proposes to call in rebuttal.

161 (4) The reports of any other independent examiner are admissible as evidence upon 162 stipulation of the prosecution and defense.

163 (5) This section does not prevent any party from producing any other testimony as to the 164 mental condition of the defendant. Expert witnesses who are not appointed by the court are not 165 entitled to compensation under Subsection (7).

166 (6) This section does not require the admission of evidence not otherwise admissible.

167 (7) Expenses of examination ordered by the court under this section shall be paid by the 168 Department of Human Services. Travel expenses associated with the examination incurred by the 169 defendant shall be charged by the department to the county where prosecution is commenced.
170 Examination of defendants charged with violation of municipal or county ordinances shall be 171 charged by the department to the entity commencing the prosecution.
