

DISTANCE EDUCATION DOCTORATE PROGRAM

2001 GENERAL SESSION

STATE OF UTAH

Sponsor: Beverly Ann Evans

This act provides for a Distance Education Doctorate Program to be offered by the state system of higher education through Utah State University over the UEN-EDNET system.

The act has a $195,000 appropriation and an effective date of July 1, 2001.

This act affects sections of Utah Code Annotated 1953 as follows:

ENACTS:

53B-18-1001, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 53B-18-1001 is enacted to read:

Part 10. Distance Education Doctorate Program

53B-18-1001. Distance Education Doctorate Program.

(1) The Legislature finds that:

(a) many Utah public education administrators are nearing the end of their careers and will retire early in the 21st Century;

(b) Utah public schools have many mid-career faculty that could become the next wave of administrators if they were prepared with a doctorate in education degree that emphasized curriculum and instruction;

(c) each of Utah's community colleges have several faculty that need a terminal degree and further knowledge in curriculum development and state-of-the-art instructional methodology, and these individuals, being mid-career, find it difficult to relocate to a college campus for a traditional program; and

(d) the state and its students will be better served if faculty and administrators are more knowledgeable about the development of curriculum and the latest instructional methodology based on documented research.

(2) Therefore, Utah State University shall establish a Distance Education Doctorate Program to accommodate public education administrators and community college faculty and administration.

(3) The program shall include the following components:

(a) the offering of courses for a doctorate degree in education over the UEN-EDNET system established under Title 53B, Chapter 17, Part 1, Educational Telecommunications;

(b) structuring of the program to make it identical to a regular campus program in rigor and course work; and

(c) providing a support system from at least the following five departments at the university:

(i) Elementary Education;

(ii) Secondary Education;

(iii) Business Information Systems and Education;

(iv) Industrial Technology; and

(v) Agricultural Systems Technology and Education.

(4) The university shall augment the program with off-campus summer courses, with those courses eventually being offered over the UEN-EDNET system.

(5) The Legislature shall provide an annual appropriation to fund the program established under this part.

Section 2. Appropriation.

There is appropriated for fiscal year 2001-02, $195,000 in individual income tax revenues to Utah State University to fund the Distance Education Doctorate Program established in Section 53B-18-1001.

Section 3. Effective date.

This act takes effect on July 1, 2001.
