AMENDS:

53A-3-402.9, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2006, Chapter 98

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 53A-3-402.9 is amended to read:

53A-3-402.9. Assessment of emerging and early reading skills -- Resources provided by school districts.

28 (1) The Legislature recognizes that well-developed reading skills help:
29 (a) children to succeed in school, develop self esteem, and build positive relationships
30 with others;
31 (b) young adults to become independent learners; and
32 (c) adults to become and remain productive members of a rapidly changing
33 technology-based society.

34 (2) (a) Each potential kindergarten student, the student's parent or guardian, and 35 kindergarten personnel at the student's school may participate in an assessment of the student's 36 reading and numeric skills.

37 [~~(b)~~ The assessment, if made, should take place in the spring prior to the kindergarten
38 year, but no later than June 15th prior to the school year.]

39 [~~(c)~~] (b) The State Office of Education, in cooperation with the state's school districts,
40 may develop the assessment instrument and any additional materials needed to implement and 41 supplement the assessment program.

42 (3) The potential kindergarten student's teacher may use the assessment in planning and 43 developing an instructional program to meet the student's identified needs.

44 (4) (a) Each school is encouraged to schedule the assessment early enough before the 45 kindergarten starting date so that a potential kindergarten student's parent or guardian has time
46 to develop the child's needed skills as identified by the assessment.

47 [~~(4)~~] (b) Based on the assessment under Subsection (2), the school shall provide the 48 potential student's parent or guardian with appropriate resource materials to assist [~~them~~] the 49 parent or guardian at home in the student's literacy development.
