30 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

31 Section 1. Section 63-8a-101 is enacted to read:

32 CHAPTER 8a. INTERSTATE COMPACTS AND AGREEMENTS

33 Part 1. General Provisions

34 63-8a-101. Title.

35 This chapter is known as "Interstate Compacts and Agreements."

36 Section 2. Section 63-8a-102 is enacted to read:

37 63-8a-102. Definitions.

38 As used in this chapter:

39 (1) "Agency head" means a cabinet officer, an elected official, an executive director, or
40 a board or commission vested with the authority to administer or make policy for a state
41 agency.

42 (2) "Executive officer" means:

43 (a) the governor;

44 (b) the lieutenant governor;

45 (c) the attorney general;

46 (d) the state treasurer;

47 (e) the state auditor;

48 (f) agency head; or

49 (g) any other person or entity vested with the authority to enter into an agreement on
50 behalf of the state.

51 (3) "Interstate agreement" means any agreement that is entered into between this state
52 and:

53 (a) one or more other states;

54 (b) an Indian tribe as defined in Section 9-9-402; or

55 (c) a foreign government; and

56 (4) (a) "Significant interstate agreement" means an interstate agreement that:

57 (A) could or would require a statute or rule change in order to implement the 58 agreement or to conform to its provisions or requirements;

59 (B) could or would require the state to expend more than $50,000 in order to 60 implement the agreement or to conform to its provisions or requirements; or

61 (C) would legally bind the state to a new or substantially different policy in order to 62 implement the agreement or to conform to its provisions or requirements.

63 (b) "Significant interstate agreement" includes an interstate compact, whether or not
64 the compact requires federal congressional approval.

65 (c) "Significant interstate agreement" does not mean:

66 (i) an agreement entered into by the governor dealing with extradition or other matters
67 dealing with incarceration; or

68 (ii) an agreement entered into by an executive officer under authority that:

69 (A) is granted by the Legislature; and

70 (B) explicitly authorizes the executive officer to enter into the agreement.

71 (4) (a) "State agency" means:

72 (i) each department, commission, board, council, agency, institution, officer,
73 corporation, fund, division, office, committee, authority, hospital, laboratory, library, unit,
74 bureau, panel, program, or other instrumentality of the state; and

75 (ii) each state public education entity.

76 (b) "State agency" does not mean:

77 (i) a legislative branch agency;

78 (ii) an independent agency;

79 (iii) a state institution of higher education as defined Section 53B-3-102;

80 (iv) a county, municipality, school district, local district, or special service district; or

81 (v) any administrative subdivision of a county, municipality, school district, local 82 district, or special service district.

83 Section 3. Section 63-8a-201 is enacted to read:

84 Part 2. Legislative Approval of Interstate Agreements

85 63-8a-201. Approval of significant interstate agreements -- Validity.

86 (1) (a) Before legally binding the state by executing a significant interstate agreement,
87 an executive officer shall:

88 (i) submit the proposed significant interstate agreement to the governor for the 89 governor's written approval or rejection; and

90 (ii) if the governor approves the significant interstate agreement, submit the significant
91 interstate agreement to the Legislature for the Legislature's approval or rejection by means of:

92 (A) a concurrent resolution approving or rejecting the agreement; or

93 (B) enacting the agreement into law.

94 (b) (i) If the Legislature approves the agreement as required by this section, the 95 executive officer may execute the significant interstate agreement.

96 (ii) If the Legislature rejects the agreement, the executive officer may not execute the
97 significant interstate agreement.

98 (2) If an executive officer executes a significant interstate agreement without obtaining
99 the governor's approval or the Legislature's approval as required by Subsection (1), the 100 agreement is void ab initio.

101 (3) The requirements of this section do not apply to a significant interstate agreement
102 that is entered into:

103 (a) before May 5, 2008; or

104 (b) by a state institution of higher education as defined in Section 53B-3-102.

105 Section 4. Section 63-8a-202 is enacted to read:

106 63-8a-202. Other interstate agreements.

107 Notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter, the Legislature may enact legislation
108 prohibiting the enactment of an interstate agreement even if the agreement is not a significant
109 interstate agreement as defined in this chapter.

110 Section 5. Section 63-8a-203 is enacted to read:

111 63-8a-203. Application of chapter in emergencies.

112 (1) Notwithstanding the requirements of Section 63-8a-201, an executive officer may
113 enter into a significant interstate agreement on a temporary basis without legislative approval
114 during:

115 (a) an emergency or major disaster declared by the President of the United States of 116 America; or

117 (b) a state of emergency declared by the governor under Section 63-5a-5.

118 (2) If a significant interstate agreement is entered into without legislative approval

119 under Subsection (1), the executive officer entering into the agreement shall provide notice of 120 the execution of the agreement to the Legislature at the next meeting of the Executive
121 Appropriations Subcommittee of the Legislature and shall comply with the requirements of 122 Section 63-8a-201 to thereafter obtain the approval of the Legislature.

123 Section 6. Coordinating S.B. 144 with H.B. 63 -- Technical renumbering.

124 If this S.B. 144 and H.B. 63, Recodification of Title 63 State Affairs in General, both
125 pass, it is the intent of the Legislature that the Office of Legislative Research and General
126 Counsel, in preparing the Utah Code database for publication renumber Sections 63-8a-101
127 through 63-8a-203 to 63G-11-101 through 63G-11-203 and change all internal references.
