Utah Code Sections Affected:

REPEALS AND REENACTS:

26A-1-117, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2002, Chapter 249

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 26A-1-117 is repealed and reenacted to read:

28 26A-1-117. Funding of local health department -- Separate tax levy -- Use of 29 general fund money.

30 (1) A county may fund its local health department from:

31 (a) federal, state, or, subject to Subsection (3), local money appropriated, allocated, or 32 otherwise made available to the local health department;

33 (b) funds derived from a county property tax levy, as provided in Subsection (2); and

34 (c) the county's general fund, subject to Subsection (3).

35 (2) (a) A county may levy a property tax, for purposes of funding the county's local 36 health department, at a rate not to exceed .0004 per dollar of taxable value.

37 (b) As provided in Subsection 59-2-911(1)(h), the maximum levies under Section
38 59-2-908 do not apply to and do not include a levy under this Subsection (2).

39 (c) A county is exempt from the advertisement and hearing requirements of Sections
40 59-2-918 and 59-2-919 for an increase in the levy under this Subsection (2) if the increase is 41 equal to or less than a concurrent decrease in the county's levy for general county purposes.

42 (d) A county that levies a tax under this Subsection (2) shall allocate all revenue
43 collected from the tax to the county's local health department.

44 (3) A county may not allocate money from its general fund to the local health
45 department unless the county imposes the maximum levy allowed under Subsection (2).
